

TRANSCRIPT OF VIDEO WITH Director Hurry

Ari: [describes the stolen goods he has recovered. TM sounds impressed]. They told me they won't promote me because I'm white.

TM: Who told you?

Ari: Ngidi. Commissioner Ngidi. I've been in the force since 1999. ... running around catching criminals. Just serving the community.

TM: No, no no, we're writing a letter to the commissioner. Serious.

Ari: Since 2002 I'm a sergeant [continues in same vein]. I work with Johan Booysen, head of organised crime... commissioner Brown, I work with them very closely. They're personal friends of mine.

TM: The commissioner of the province is Ngidi, ne?

Ari: Ja.

TM: No, I'll be writing to the commissioner.

Ari: ... They said no, I can't promote you. So I'm quitting the force. [continues, explains how he has taught other cops to deal with computers].

TM: You were supposed to get money out of this thing. ...

Ari [gives him his business card, tells him to talk to Booysen directly.] He told me straight.

Ari, he says to me. We've been told by Commissioner Ngidi that white reservists will not be promoted in KZN.

[TM asks for Booysen's number. Asks about state computers recovered. Then asks about computers not collected] I will have to talk to you. [hints he wants a discount]

Ari: Somebody tipped off this guy. I spoke to the deputy minister. He knows him very well. He's a friend of his. I told the minister [discuss no case opened, he can handle it internally]

[hand over the laptop, TM hints he must reimburse Ari].

... [talks about AK-47 photo]

TM: [thanks him profusely]

Ari: There's gonna be an article in the paper about me resigning [TIMELINE HERE]

I told the paper that I'm resigning because this is what happened: I cannot be promoted because of based on my race. ... [say goodbye jokingly].
